GENERAL INFORMATION

- Work must be original.
- Classes marked * are eligible to compete for the MLASA Trophy as per Rule 30.
- All entries can be collected from the Show Pavilions after 4.30pm on the Monday of the Show. Exhibitors must report to the Art Convener prior to collection.
- Entry into the Novice class is open to all who have never won a prize in classes 1 - 8.

Classes 1-11

- Only 2D (Flat) Work will be accepted.
 - Entry Ticket to be affixed to the artwork on the back so that it hangs down under the artwork such that the exhibitor number is visible from the front once hung.
 - Work to be less than 1 metre x 1 metre.
 - Maximum of 4 entries per artist in any class.
- Artworks in classes 1 – 9 MUST be ready to hang. All works will need to have picture wire attached suitable to hang. Artwork under glass must have flat “D” hooks and picture wire. The small metal hooks supplied with smaller photo frames are not safe for hanging.
- Children’s classes 10 – 11 works on paper will be pinned to the boards.
 - Works presented such that they are unsuitable or unsafe will not be exhibited and not be considered for judging. Parents and /or teachers may help the student frame their work.
